WE NOMINATE

The 300-plus Princeton women who—together with their husbands, daughters, sons and last-minute volunteers from "next door"—made possible last week's eminently successful Mothers' March on behalf of the expanded program of The National Foundation. In carrying through an intensive doorbell-to-doorbell solicitation for The March of Dimes, which in 1959 has broadened its attack to include arthritis, birth defects and virus diseases, the organizers and their workers compiled a record that may well be without equal for any area of Princeton's size in the dozen or so states comprising the northeastern corner of these United States.

It is now quite apparent, on the basis of almost-complete returns, that the "marching mothers" in the seventh successive winter Greater Princeton has supported a Mothers' March erased all previous local marks by collecting some $5,500. This compares with less than $4,000 a year ago and an all-time high of approximately $4,200. The same evening last week in Trenton (estimated population: 128,000) the Mothers' March produced some $8,000, while another Mercer County municipality, with more than twice Princeton's population, came up with $4,100.

The low-pressure "March", covering Dutch Neck, Penns Neck and Princeton Junction neighborhoods as well as Princeton Borough and Township, was organized under the generalship of a 28-member executive committee which held its one and only organization meeting early last month. A thousand telephone calls later the effort had been so carefully planned that 90 per cent of the March on January 27th was "in" within the space of three hours, with the "counters", including members of the Kiwanis Club, doubting the accuracy of their count as the report-by-report tally climbed past the $5,000-mark.

Each member of the appointed executive committee assumed full responsibility for a given geographic area, while four mothers—Mesdames Duncan C. Augustine, Arthur T. Fenton, Judson D. Kurtz and Raymond C. Woodrow—served as coordinators, pulling together the myriad loose ends of an all-amateur campaign. For instance, Mrs. Woodrow, the mother of three and a polio victim, supervised the entire sprawling residential area west of the "Bayard Lane-Springdale Road line."

In turn, the coordinators give all credit to their fellow "Admirals of the March": Mesdames Henry Abrams, Samuel D. Atkins, Elias T. Baker, John Brinster, Lester Clec, J. G. Copeland Jr., K. C. Cromwell, Braxton Ellerbee, R. T. Frost, S. J. Konefsky, David Lilienthal Jr., Richard G. Macgill, William Miller, W. Peskin, D. E. Quigley, John B. Redding Jr., Graham Rohrer, Warren A. Schenck, Robert Van De Velde, Philip J. Wainford, Frederic H. Wandelt, Howard J. White Jr., Stanmore V. Wilson and J. C. Young.

For dramatizing for all of Princeton one of the country's most appealing fund-raising undertakings; for placing obligations to others far above matters of personal concern; for giving of themselves so that others might have opportunities to give; these 300-plus women are Town Topics' nominees for

WINTER NOTE

Don't Rally the Flags, Boys! A serious dilemma confronts Borough
Sgt. Peter J. McCrohan this week.
The leader of recreational pursuits in the Princeton community and a lover of fun for the area's youngsters, he isn't sure how he's going to let skaters know when there's ice on Carnegie Lake in the future.

For years, the good sergeant has been raising a white flag (with red dot) at Nassau and Witherspoon Streets whenever safe skating prevails on the lake.
University students like to take the flags to their rooms for decoration, however, and now Sgt.
McCrohan's original gross of flags is depleted.

"We ran out last week end," the sergeant reported, "and the police desk received over a hundred calls asking why there wasn't any skating, since the weather was so cold. The problem of replacing poles for the flags isn't difficult, but my wife had to make the latest flag — and I don't think she can keep up with the students."

Sgt. McCrohan noted that the flag is a favorite target of the culprits because they think it's a Japanese flag. "What can we do?"
the recreation leader asked.
"It's also the international safe-skating emblem."

Princeton commuters this week an entry in their sick list. Starting Monday, anyone who

Don't Dial "O" For Fire!

Fire conditions being what they are in these days of brisk winds and icy conditions, leaders of the Princeton Volunteer Fire Department this week urged Princetonians to know what number to call in case of fire. Above all, DON'T dial "O" for "Operator" in case of a blaze, they stressed.

Residents of Princeton Borough should keep their Police Department number (WA 4-4141) near their phones and dial it when a fire starts. (Residents of Princeton Township should call their Police Department (WA 4-3105). When darkness prevents proper dialing or the correct police number isn't remembered, the caller should dial "0" and ask for either "Princeton Borough Police" or "Princeton Township Police."

Explaining the problems in case of improper dialing, the firefighters said most of the phone operators today work out of Trenton and, quite locally, connect emergency callers with either the Trenton Fire Department or the Trenton Police. If the caller says merely, "Give me the Princeton Police," he may be connected with the Princeton State Police Barracks on U. S.
1. To avoid costly delays, correct procedure should be followed, the fire leaders emphasized.

new, yellow line — 25 feet south and east of the center line — will be ticketed for illegal parking.

Actually, the commuters should not dread this new restriction;
many of them have been parking hazardously near the downtown station for a long time and should welcome the safety-promoted change in Borough policy. As Actling Chief Raymond Mondone pointed out this week, chaotic parking procedures at the foot of University Place have created traffic and fire hazards too long.

Borough authorities, who studied the complicated question of parking in the area of University Place near the station before reaching a decision, admitted they don't know who owns some of the property — but decided to impose safety regulations anyhow. Determination of ownership is not an immediate necessity, since recent parking practices have caused a "public nuisance," or enough for enforcement of a parking limit to keep drivers from obstructing the right of way.
Final determination of property ownership will rest with the Borough attorney and Mayor and Council. When it has been determined, a new form of ordinance regulating parking and traffic in the area will be adopted.

At last week's meeting of the Borough Safety Committee, which endorsed the new University Place plan, other downtown traffic matters also were discussed.
It was decided that Mercer Street Extension, the small segment of street between the "Island" and TOWN TOWNS, should be used only by motorists making a right on University Place, to avoid congestion at the University-Nassau intersection. This idea will not be able to see a second day, however, the University-Nassau parking lot has been constructed at the southern end of the lot — for persons heading toward Nassau.

The committee members agreed that the Bayard Lane-Avanue Place intersection is a "dangerous one" and should be given serious attention at once.
With other traffic problems all over town, they decided Nassau's major maladjustments can wait until more difficult arteries have been cleared.

Following Princeton's recent snowfall, Borough police issued 80 warnings to property owners for not clearing their sidewalks of snow and ice within 12 daylight hours after the snow stopped falling.

TOPICS Of the Town

ELECTIONS TUESDAY

For School Boards. As in the case of municipalities all over the state, Princeton Borough and Princeton Township will elect school board members next Tuesday. Residents will be asked to choose three of four candidates in the Borough and three of six nominees in the Township. Though the hours may vary in other communities, Princetonians in both Borough and Township will be able to vote from 5 to 9 p.m. Thereby accommodating commuters and other persons who work late in the day, in the Borough, residents of districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 8 will cast ballots at Nassau Street School, while residents of districts 6 and 7 will vote at Witherspoon School. In the Township, all voters will indicate their preferences at Valley Road School.

John S. Donal Jr., 264 Snowden Lane, is the sole incumbent in the Township, as opposed to three incumbents — Mrs. L. W. Loetscher, 74 Mercer Street, Dr. Henry Abrams, Armour Road, and Bryan V. Moore, 30 Quarry Street — in the Borough. J. Van Skillman, 22 Harriet Drive, is the lone challenger in the Borough, as opposed to five newcomers—Leonard M. Hymerling, Jefferson Rd., Joel B. Johnson, 122 Cedar Lane, Glen B. Miller Jr., 243 Russell Road, Richard Pearson, 187 Valley Road, and Dr. Oscar Sussing, 42 Clover Lane — in the Township.

In addition to selecting members for the respective Boards of Education, citizens will have an opportunity to endorse or disapprove of the school systems' budgets for 1959-1960. Roughly, the Borough school budget is figured at $1,000,000, while the Township budget is calculated at approximately $1,100,000.

League Sponsors Forum. Candidates for the two Princeton school boards warned up for next Tuesday's election at an interesting 90-minute session Monday evening in the Nassau Street School auditorium. Almost 100 persons turned out for the meeting, sponsored by the League of Women Voters of the Princeton community, to hear each candidate answer a specific question—and a number of queries fired at the nominees from the floor.

In response to the "canned" question—what is the most pressing problem facing the school boards today?—the candidates came up with generally the same response. Township candidates agreed that proper supervision of growth headaches is the most important subject to be tackled. Borough candidates, with the growth factor pretty well under control, reasoned that maintenance of a high-calibre teaching and administrative staff is the key problem for the coming years.

All candidates in both municipalities, with the exception of Mr. Skillman, were on hand for the informal, voluntary forum. Mr. Skillman, out of town on a business trip, was represented by Robert Nelson, who stressed that the former is "interested in the mental, social, moral and physical development of our chil-

Other Area Candidates

Franklin Township: Salvatore Argila, Kurt Mason, Julius Silver and Madison E. Weldner.

Lawrence Township: Herman Berenson, R. Garrett Boetema, Robert B. Immodino, Carl R. Kreger and John H. Spooner.

Plainsboro Township: Harold Britton, Enock Durbin, Mrs. Mary Saunders, Oliver Saylor, Mrs. June Snook and Benjamin Tipl.

South Brunswick Township: Harold Leary, John Murphy, Dr. Rudolph Prietke and Haydn Raabe.

West Windsor Township: Walter Conover Jr., Mrs. Winifred Fisher, Bernard Mount and Mrs. Hannah Tindall.

drum. Because of his interest, training and experience, he is especially interested in the physical plant and physical development of the youngsters.

Questions asked from the floor at the League-organized event brought calm answers, with no blood-letting or difficult controversies in evidence at the gathering. All candidates seemed to concur that consolidation of the two school boards is a vital proposition, and all promised to give it due consideration during the period ahead, when it probably will come under the scrutiny of a professional survey team.

WHAT'S ON THE AGENDA?

Township Committee. When the Township Committee meets on Monday at 8 p.m., its members will consider several items of old and new business.

The 1959 budget will be introduced and a date announced for the public hearing on the budget. The Committee will also consider a request from the West Windsor Township Committee to pass a resolution similar to that passed in West Windsor, asking the Mercer County Board of Freeholders to restrict heavy trucks on Lower Harrison Street from U. S. 1.

Two road-acceptance ordinances will be introduced—for Hun Road and Heather Lane. Bids will be received for construction of Van Dyke Road. Two developers, Princeton Housing Associates and the Sandean Construction Company, will request refunds; Princeton Housing Associates a cash refund and Sandean a reduction in the amount of its performance bond.

There will also be a public hearing in the liquor ordinance amendment recommended by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission. This amendment would clarify the "reasonable time" allowed a pre-midnight drinker to consume his drink.

Borough Council. A light agenda for next Tuesday's Borough Council meeting at 8 p.m., will consist of the following:

Reports from the Joint Recreation Committee on the possible uses of the Witherspoon Building and from the Princeton Business Association on the Friday evening parking meter experiment. Committee reports will include one on possible preparation of an amended ordinance on rabies control.

Announcing . . . A CHANGE OF NAME for the Nassau Tavern Hotel

Effective immediately, the Nassau Tavern Hotel will be renamed—

NASSAU INN

Actually, this is not a new name, but a restoration of the designation which identified the original "Nass" for nearly 200 years.

Time changes many things, including the meaning of words. Time has also changed the services and facilities provided by this hotel. They are no longer accurately or adequately described by the modern connotation of the term "lavern".

For several years, the Board of Directors of Princeton Municipal Improvement, Inc. has felt that the "Nass" should have a new name.

By far, the predominate preference of Princetonians who were "polled" proved to be, not a new name, but the revival of the old. It was decided, therefore, to restore the name so rich in historic lore, and return to Princeton its "Nassau Inn".

This, it was felt, is the time for the change, when we are planning new features and added facilities.

When the "Nass" was rebuilt on Palmer Square, in 1937, the architects and builders "transplanted tradition" by carefully preserving the gracious charm of the original Nassau Inn — this will again be done in the forthcoming expansion program.

— Today, the "Nass" provides all modern hotel service, comfort, and convenience, while preserving the colonial atmosphere of the original Nassau Inn — now even the name is the same.

We hope you will approve—

 Reader To Direct Campaign. Ralph S. Mason, senior partner in the law firm of Mason, Griffin and Moore, has been elected president of the Princeton United Community Fund for 1959. John M. Reeder of 151 Valley Road (see page 15) was named campaign chairman. Vice-chairman is Clement V. Conole, manager of the Tabulating Card Co., 90 Nassau Street.

Other officers are Fred M. Blaicher, first vice-president; Paul M. Orr, second vice-president; Walter B. Jefferson Jr., treasurer; George J. Adriance, assistant treasurer; Walter H. Scott, secretary and executive director; and Beatrice H. Miers, assistant secretary. New trustees are J. Douglas Brown, LeBaron Foster, Gordon A. Crale, Mrs. D. A. Fruland, Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Hans Kaufman, Mrs. Marston Morse, Robert F. Popino, Mrs. Richard Schoch.

Gerard M. Lambert Community Service Awards were presented to Mr. Blaicher, chairman of the 1958 campaign, and B. Franklin Bunn, a founder of the fund. Mr. Blaicher reported that $175,000 was raised in the 1958 campaign. This figure is an all-time record for the fund, he said, and the total is expected to climb above $180,000 when last-minute contributions are tabulated.

 Weather clear and cold, Ground hog took his cue: Springtime got cold shadow, Winter hogged his view.
 —FLORIDA-BOUND

There'll be six more weeks of winter, all right, but oddly enough, the Man reports they will be somewhat warmer than normal. February is generally the coldest month of the year (31.7 average temperature) but the thermometer will do better than that: a good part of the time, the long-range forecast indicates. Precipitation, too, will be above average, as shown by Wednesday's wet of better than half an inch of rain. Slow clearing Thursday and a turn to lower temperature for the weekend; fair and clear Saturday and Sunday.

The fund received contributions from 5,585 persons, also a record. Since 1956, 560 new contributors have been added, Mr. Blaicher said. He reported that all but a few campaign divisions exceeded their totals of previous years.

The largest increase was in the Research Division, headed by Lawrence Benson and William Davidson. Teams in this division reported $25,094, an increase of $5,911 over 1957. The Business Division as a whole accounted for more than $50,000. The Education Division, under Paul Chesebro, reported $1,804, an increase of 40.4 per cent over last year's $1,355. Mr. Chesebro pointed out that every school and college in the area provided substantial increases. Princeton University, a separate division headed by Howard Stepp, raised $16,834, up 13.5 per cent from 1957. Seventy-six special Citations of Achievement certificates were awarded to business and organizations making outstanding contributions to the drive. Wednesday's annual dinner meeting at the YM-YWCA was attended by 180 members of the Fund.

News Of The THEATRES

PLAYERS TO END RUN
On Highly-Successful Note. The final two performances of "Under Milk Wood," the Princeton Community Players' current production, will be staged Friday and Saturday evenings at the Alexander Street Playmill. Curtain-time for the Dylan Thomas drama is 8:30.

Another good house last Friday was followed by a second Saturday night staidiee attendance. Prospective playgoers this weekend are advised to obtain tickets early (for information, see advertisement, this page). Every effort will be made by the Players to accommodate late-comers.

Long-time observers of the Princeton theatrical scene credit a variety of circumstances for the unusual success of "Milk Wood," a finely-written drama which depends on unique character portrayal delving alternately into humor and pathos—rather than on action—for its continuing appeal.

First off was the decision to stage the play on three successive Fridays and Saturdays, eliminating the hard-to-sell Thursday nights and Saturday matinees. An SFO audience the first Saturday night was best proof of the wisdom of that decision. Estimates of the actual appeal of the Thomas drama vary from luke-warm to the starry-eyed, but there is virtual unanimous agreement on the production's strongest points. The 14-member cast is one of the best assembled by the Players in their 25-plus years on the Princeton scene, and the top-flight direction of John Becker, including a number of astute innovations unknown to the late author, were a guarantee of success the moment the house lights first darkened.

THE PLAYHOUSE

"Bell, Book and Candle" (February 5-10), an elegant, enchanting piece of escapism when it played on Broadway, makes the transition to Technicolor cinema in a hilarious tale of modern witches and witchcraft is even funnier than the screen than it was on the stage. Adapted adroitly from John Van Druten's hit play by Daniel Taradash and, directed with deft tongue-in-cheek by Richard Quine, "Bell, Book and Candle" offers one of the most amusingly confusing and rib-tickling of ridiculous movie to come out of Hollywood in a long spell.

James Stewart, climbing out of Western togs and returning happily to the comedy style which gained him early film fame, surpasses himself as the bewitched book publisher who serves as the foil for all the foolish skulduggery. Kim Novak, in her top role to date, proves beautifully bewitching, while Jack Lemmon, as Miss Novak's brother, a bawling warlock (male witch), is outstanding. Lending other keen performances to the production are Ernie Kovacs, as the author of a book on witchcraft; Elsa Lanchester, as Miss Novak's piqued witch-aunt; and Hermione Gingold, known as the high priestess of witchcraft.

Rally 'Round the Flag, Boys! (February 11-17) gives the Playhouse its second successive comedy hit, this one concocted in mad fashion by that cinematic magician, Leo McCarey. The talented producer-director, responsible for so many delightful films in bygone days, is at his best in promoting the author of the best-selling novel by Max Shulman. He is aided in the promotion by a well-chosen cast—Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward as a mixed-up, suburban couple, Joan Collins as their seductive neighbor, Jack Carson as a civilian-hating Army captain, etc., etc.—and the effective use of CinemaScope and DeLuxe Color.

For those who missed the book, "Rally" deals amusingly with the marital problems of a young Connecticut couple, emphasizing, of course, the farcical aspects of the situation. Newman becomes involved with Miss Collins, lonely with her husband out of town, then gets in deeper when, on an abortive visit to the Pentagon to represent his community, he is followed by Miss Collins, without his knowledge, and discovered with her in his hotel room by Miss Woodward. Meanwhile, Carson is busy attempting to establish a "Top Secret" base in the Connecticut town — an attempt which meets strong opposition on all fronts. McCarey once again is well worth rallying 'round, boys!

Inspector Maigret (February 5-7) in French with English titles, features actor Jean Gabin again cast as George Simenon's resourceful sleuth, this time confronted with a series of fiendish stabbing murders. The unknown killer, it is learned, persistently strikes at dusk and his victims are plump brunette women. ## MUSIC In Princeton

PRINCETONIANS PLAY

As Soloists and Orchestra. The Princeton Symphony Orchestra and its soloists showed Monday night what can be done by a group of highly skilled amateurs who love to make music.

The stars of the evening were, of course, Louise Strunsky and Sylvia Nichols who shared applause for their performance of the Poulenc Concerto in D Minor for Two Pianos and Orchestra.

The Concerto is a bag of fireworks and the soloists set it off in splendid style. It is possible that some sober citizens wished that all of the work that went into the Poulenc might have gone into something more substantial, but the Concerto is a magnificent show-piece for the virtuosity of Mrs. Strunsky and Mrs. Nichols, and the audience had a wonderful time.

The Poulenc means certain requirements in the way of digital dexterity and timing, and with Mr. Harnsanyi, the two soloists met them all. Their precision and technique were particularly evident in the first movement, the allegro, where a series of staccato piano notes must synchronize perfectly with pizzicati.

It was a genuine personal triumph for Mrs. Strunsky and Mrs. Nichols; their performance and the music they played were as dazzling as their Chinese red gowns.

M. Poulenc's concerto was flanked by Vivaldi's Concerto Grosso in D Minor and the sixth symphony of Schubert. In the Vivaldi, three other soloists performed with precision, competence and grace. Helen Tass and Joseph Kovacs, violins; David Welk, cello and Alden Ashforth, harpsichordist (an unobtrusive, almost inaudible harpsichordist) furnished a spirited concertino.

The Schubert symphony—music that always seems to wear a turtleneck—was interesting because it showed how disciplined an ensemble the Princeton Orchestra has become under Mr. Harnsanyi's direction.

He has a collection of people almost as heterogeneous as the Poulenc concerto itself, and he has disciplined it until it performs as a homogeneous unit. He is fortunate, of course, because he has the unusual resources of the Princeton community; nevertheless, he deserves tremendous credit.

He took the orchestra through the Schubert symphony with a presto that was really a presto, and with a vigorous allegro he brought this fine Princeton concert to a fine conclusion.

CLEVELANDERS TO PLAY

In Princeton Next Monday, One of Princeton's favorite orchestras, the Cleveland Orchestra, will play in McCarter Theatre Monday at 8:30 p.m. under the direction of George Szell.

The orchestra's 100 members will play Beethoven's Coriolanus Overture, Op. 62; Schumann's "Sinfonia" Symphony, (No. 1 in B-Flat); and Strauss' "Death and Transfiguration." All seats for the concert have been sold, but standing room will be available for 50 people at $1.50. These tickets will go on sale at 7:30 p.m. the evening of the concert and may not be reserved.

George Szell, a Hungarian by birth, was trained in Vienna. At an early age he was appointed to the staff of the Berlin State Opera by Richard Strauss, the Cleveland conductor settled in the United States shortly after the outbreak of World War II and made his debut as conductor in New York in 1941. He now divides his time between the Cleveland group and the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, Holland. There are many instruments of distinction in the Cleveland Orchestra. The concertmaster plays on a violin made by Antonio Stradivari in 1683. It is known as "The Martinielli." The associate concertmaster plays on a Guarnerius del Gesù, 1729. The orchestra's oldest instrument is a violin made in 1568 by the first of the great Amatis.

UNDER HIS BATON: George Szell will conduct the Cleveland Orchestra in McCarter Theatre next Monday night.

Williams Here Saturday

Although the mezzanine is completely sold out, orchestra tickets still remain for Emylin Williams' solo performance, "A Boy Growing Up," scheduled for 8:30 this Saturday at McCarter Theatre. The British actor, who began a 14-week cross-country tour January 15, will be making his only appearance in this area in his program based on the stories of Welsh poet Dylan Thomas.

During his previous visit to the United States, Williams earned a full set of critical raves. "A Boy Growing Up" was previously acclaimed by McCarter audiences in October, 1957. Then, as in the case of his return engagement, Williams came here under the bright banner of impresario S. Hurok.

Tickets for "A Boy Growing Up" will be available at the Princeton University Store through Saturday and at the McCarter box office prior to the performance Saturday evening. The program is being sponsored by the newly-formed Dana Productions, whose next attraction is the highly-touted Kingston Trio, Capitol recording artists, who will appear March 7 in Alexander Hall.

IT'S NEW

To Us

STOCK UP ON PALM

Low on Staples? The Nassau Delicatessen, with an understandable concern for everybody's larder, has laid in a good supply of canned hearts of palm. You know how it is when you run out of these staples: neighbor drops in and you're all out of palm hearts. Well, stock up now while the supply lasts.

The Del. offers its heart to you for 79 cents, three for $1.59. How can you resist?

The brimming delicatessen on Palmer Square now has its own specialty teas and you save quite a bit of money when you buy them instead of standard brands. You have a choice of English Breakfast, Lapsang Souchong, Jasmine Darjeeling, all at 99 cents for a four-ounce black and gold box. If you prefer tea-bags, the Del. has its own blend of orange pekoe and Darjeeling teas done up in tea-bags and sold at 69 cents for 48.

Now, if you really want to experiment with teas, buy the pure Pfefferminze and make yourself a fragrant cup of peppermint tea. Very good, so they say, for uneasy stomachs.

What did you last have liver-dumping soup? We thought so. The West German firm of Exo now packages a liver-dumping soup mix ("just add water") and several other tantalizing dehydrated soups. How about some na with smoked meat and vegetables? Good for a wintry lunch. Or pea with smoked meat and bacon?

You might like Hungarian goulash or shell noodles with vegetables or Italian rice soup. There is asparagus, too, for conservatives.

Two other West German products appear to fill out that larder you're worried about. Both of them are honeys: a lemon honey and "tannenhonig", which is, if you don't know German but do remember your Christmas carols, a honey that comes from pine trees. (Yes, junior we know the honey comes from bees; it's where the bees have been that makes the honey flavor.)

We don't know where the bees that made some new rum and brandy sauces. Pour them over half a cantaloupe, or over strawberry shortcake (well, that's what the label says) or just spoon out of the jar and eat.

For Wine Lovers

Claridge Wine and Liquor, Inc. (Princeton Shopping Center), has just acquired a splendid collection of chateau-bottled wines which it is offering at very low prices. So if you have estate bottled tastes and a vin ordinaire wallet, this is your chance.

For example, from the Medoc, a Chateau Lynch Bages, for $2.75 or Chateau au Longueville at the same price. For $2.98, you may have a sauternes (premier cru) from Chateau Guiraud. A great one from Chateau Carbonneux is $2.15, and another sauternes, this one from Chateau Dolsy-Verdines, (1953) is $2.98.

Gong back to the Medoc—or rather, the Haut-Medoc this time—try the Marquis de Terme at $2.49. An estate-bottled Beaulieu Brouilly (1955) is $1.79.

Rafetto, the jam and jelly man, has begun to watch his waistline. He now has about half a dozen preserves with a low-calorie count. Choose 1½ oz. seedless black raspberry, currant, grape, apple, strawberry jelly, blackberry preserve. Price is 49 cents a jar.

One of the Del's most enticing new acquisitions is a Bavarian mint from the house of Bauer. This is a little cube of solid chocolate, firm to the bite, and flavored entrancingly with just enough mint to give it pliancy. Comes in quarter, half and full pound boxes, but we regard the largest box as the only sensible purchase. You'll empty it fast enough as it is.

Outlook: Frosty. Spring and summer jewelry looks like frost upon a windowpane. The new bracelets, chokers, necklaces and earrings at The Cummins Shop, 96 Nassau, are pastels or brilliant colors but they have, in many cases, an underlay that give them a frosty look.

Take, for example, a two-inch wide bracelet made of frosted beads in pale blue, pale violet or pale amber. The bracelet is flexible so that the beads reflect the light, but softly.

Other beads have the frosty gleam of pearls. They have been arranged in three-strand chokers, or in single-strand necklaces which can be lengthened or shortened. We liked a three-strand one with coral, olive, malise and chertreuse strands. You can wear that one with anything.

Another is a single string of bright, geranium-colored beads, and still another combines shades of violet and purple. There's a choker which goes straight around the Adam's apple. It's made of flat little ovals in grey shades, or shades of coral, or violet, or almost any color you choose. Earrings and bracelets match.

For a tropical summer day, take a cluster of fruit and wear it for an earring. Or wear little straw hats or tassels or, for more formality, a crusted cluster of wheel shells, pearls and rhinestones, all tinted a pale pink. There's a dangling bracelet to match.

If you like rococo jewelry, you'll wear the silver and rose bracelet and necklace made of linked oblongs. A coach-and-four has been traced on the oblong with the silver. The rectangular shape appears again in a set of square earrings and oblong bar pin. The Scroll design is wine red and gold. Matching bracelet is a snake of plain gold, with an oblong on the end.

SUCCESS STORY: With the world at their feet and crowns on their heads, Witherspoon School's King and Queen of the March of Dimes posed for this "victory picture" after being elected by their fellow pupils. Rae Crafy, 52 Wiggins Street, is Queen, while the King is Larry Ferrara, 42 Jefferson Road. Some $78 was raised throughout the school, under the direction of Mrs. Viola Connelly, faculty adviser for Witherspoon's Drive Committee. (Alan Richards Photo)

It's New To Us

Clutch bags made of straw are new this spring. One is black, one is white, both have rhinestones strung across the frame. A tote bag made of straw has five flat rosettes in red, violet and pink arranged symmetrically on its side. Bamboo circles provide handles.

A dark straw bag has one flat red rose to brighten its life. Another straw tote provides the background for some precise green leaves. Ladies with an informal approach to life will like the round bag woven of wood and straw with a dark brown leather top, rope handle and leather grip.

Tucks, Stripes and Peppers. A new blouse is a good tonic for a winter day. Harris' Department Store on Witherspoon Street has new ones from Ship'n Shore and Miss Fashionable. S. and S. produces one that is faintly iridescent. Its colors are subdued but when they catch the light, they come to life.

One is pale olive with black daisies, another is greyed rust. There is a smoky blue and on off-green, all with daisies. This is an over-blouse with short sleeves for $3.98.

A fabric called "Surraire" is soft like batiste but with a polish that gives it body. The pattern is a stripe alternating with a solid-color stripe. You'll find brown, red and blue.

Another S. and S. blouse is white with Edwardian tucks dovetailing on its bib, and there's a white one that looks almost like damask. It has tucks radiating out from its collar. You may have this in pastels, too.

Miss Fashionable puts big blue and red peppers, apples and assorted pieces of fresh fruit on a white skirt. Harris' provides a royal blue wool skirt that matches, precisely, the blue of those peppers.

Red oak leaves glow against the white background of another Miss Fashionable shirt. And there are red rambling roses (or yellow) on the white of the last one in the collection. All these have roll-up sleeves and shirt collars.

In the shoe department, Harris has a collection of pumps for $4.85. They are plain classics, some with a slightly pointed toe. You'll find an audacious red one for spring, and a black one to see you through winter.

Flats in the shoe department are $2.95, one with a surprisingly rounded toe. Others are pointed. Most of these little flat shoes are very plain with perhaps a flat bow on one side. A navy blue shoe has a pearl button on its quiet bow.

House cottens are stand-bys in this store, as you know. For $3.98 you may choose from a rack-full of half sizes or standards, like the maize cotton with horizontal fagging. For $5.95, there is a pale blue (bright green) with cap sleeve and boat neck.

Men buy shirts on the other side of the store. There is the Tru-Val white drip-dry cotton for $2.95, its partner in Oxford cloth for $3.95. Long-sleeved sport shirts in dark prints are $2.95. Colors are ruby, chocolate, powder blue, all in narrow stripes flecked with a dot or diamond.

clude the discovery of the principles of the traveling-wave tube, now widely used in microwave communications and radar.

Honored with Lindénblad was a former Princetonian, Dr. Lorne D. Armstrong, now a Senior Engineer with the RCA Semi-conductor and Materials Division at Somerville, who was singled out for outstanding contributions to the design and development of transistors and other semi-conductor devices.

DRIVER HELD

For Fatal Accident. Ernest Anderson, 22, of Trenton, who claimed for almost a month that he was a passenger in, not the driver of, Princeton's only death car of 1953, was ordered held for the Mercer County Grand Jury this week without bail. In special session of Township Court on Monday, Magistrate Louis R. Gerber ruled that Anderson should be bound over in connection with the Washington Road auto accident December 20 that instantly killed a teen-age Hopewell girl.

For several weeks in Princeton Hospital, and for two weeks after his release, the defendant maintained he was not behind the vehicle's wheel when the tragedy occurred. He started to take a lie detector test last week, however, and reportedly broke down and admitted he was the driver before the test could be given. Magistrate Gerber said Anderson should be "kept off the road," citing his "terrible" driving record—which now includes a reckless driving charge here in addition to the Grand Jury action.

FOUNDERS RETIRE

At Applied Science Corp. B. S. McCutchen, chairman of the board since 1946, and Thomas C. Roberts, president since 1953, retired this week from active management of the Applied Science Corporation of Princeton. They were among the original founders of the 12-year-old corporation, which now has nearly 1,000 stockholders and assets of more than $3 million.

On the recommendation of Messrs. McCutchen and Roberts, the board elected William H. Jackson as chairman and John H. Wallace Jr. as president. Mr. Jackson, an attorney, was formerly managing partner of the New York investment firm of J.

W. Whitley & Co. Mr. Wallace is administrative director of the James Forrestal Research Center of Princeton University.

Mr. Jackson served as special assistant to Secretary of State Dulles in 1955 and as special assistant to President Eisenhower for national security affairs in 1956. Mr. Wallace, president of the Princeton Hospital's board of trustees, is a former mayor of the Township. Both men are graduates of Princeton University.

ETS TO HONOR EMPLOYEES

For 10 and 15 Years' Service. Dr. Henry Chauncey, president of Educational Testing Service, will preside at a dinner in honor of 14 ETS employees this Thursday at the Princeton Inn. In celebration of his 15 years with the organization, he will receive a gift from William W. Turnbull, executive vice-president. In turn, Mr. Chauncey will present tokens of appreciation to the other 13.

Mrs. N. Alexander Everline of 15 Hamilton Avenue, Miss Shirley B. Johnson of 34 Wiggins Street, and Mrs. Eugene LaVigne of 2300 South Broad Street, Trenton, will celebrate their 15th anniversaries. Those marking ten years with ETS are Robert V. Bartnik of Sparta; James J. Cox of Trenton; Mrs. Michael Cuomo, 638 Princeton-Kingston Road; Miss Margaret C. Kahny, River Road; Edward J. Murphy, 212 Ewing Street; Joseph C. Nini, Cranbury; John H. Rhubar, 7 Leavitt Lane; Miss Frances Swineford, 88 Rossingwood; Mrs. Charles E. Tossin, Nassau Estates; and Mrs. Samuel Wells, 263½ John Street.

DIRECTOR APPOINTED

To Guide RCA Research. Humboldt W. Leverenz has been named Director of Research at RCA Laboratories. It was announced this week by Dr. Irving Wolf, Vice-President, Research.

WOMAN FINED $10

For Disorderly Conduct, Mrs. Dor Anderson of 36 Sheridan Avenue, Trenton, was fined $10 in Borough Court this week for disorderly conduct.

Magistrate Theodore T. Tama Jr. also levied fines on Kenneth Edwards, 25, of the Graduate College, $20 for speeding; Robert Rodriguez, 24, of Princeton Nursery, $15 for driving an unregistered vehicle; and Abraham J. Nydyck, 60, of Wallace Road, Princeton Junction, $12 for illegal U-turn.

HOMEMAKER FUND APPEAL

$4,000 Is Needed for 1959. The Princeton Community Homemaker Service, which expects to begin operation in March, has opened a campaign to collect $4,000 to cover expenses during the coming year. The organization already has $1,650 in capital and hopes to join the United Community Fund next year.

The service job will involve placing mature, trained homemakers in homes disrupted by illness, especially where young children or chronically ill persons are involved. Mrs. Harold Sonnichsen of Cranbury has been employed as executive secretary. Contributions should be sent to Princeton Community Homemaker Service, P.O. Box 201.

Work 'Em Harder!

Children who attend Quarry Street school would do well to keep a wary eye on their parents.

In a recent questionnaire on homework, there were more parents who thought the load too light than parents who considered their children overburdened. Of course, most parents thought the homework load was about right, which ought to be reassuring.

Of the 266 parents polled, 208 replied—a 72% return. Most of these—144—thought the homework load was fair. Seven made no comment at all. But 35 parents thought the books didn't come home often enough. And only 20 thought they come home too often.

The faculty at Quarry Street has asked parents to keep the school informed if a child seems to have too much homework. Teachers say the homework problem arises from misunderstanding the assignment, doing it much too meticulously—or all things, procrastinating.

Maurice Healy Jr. has been elected president of the Family Service Agency for 1958-1959. Other officers are John Archer, vice-president; Mrs. Charles E. Davis, secretary; and Dr. William Z. Abrams, treasurer.

Elected to the Board of Directors were Mrs. M. H. Bernstein, Mrs. Rowan Boone, Charles H. Hurford, Robert L. Johnstone, Mrs. Herbert S. Langfeld, Mrs. Courtland D. Perkins, Mrs. William H. Sayen III and Mrs. Joseph B. Stevens Jr. Board members with unexpired terms are the Rev. Benjamin J. Anderson, Richard Coleman, Mrs. William K. Evans, Mrs. Harry C. Hart, Thomas F. Hutington and Mrs. Marston Morse.

WATER STUDIES SET

By Women Voters League. The League of Women Voters of Princeton will sponsor four public discussion meetings next week in an effort to inform voters about legislative problems involved in the Delaware River basin. In line with the national organization's interest in natural resources, the Leagues of Women Voters of New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania and New York have created a joint four-state council to study the Delaware basin.

The Princeton meetings, all of which are open to the public, are scheduled as follows: Tuesday, February 10, 8:15 p.m., at the home of Mrs. William Angoff, 272 Hamilton Avenue; Wednesday, February 11, 8:15 p.m., Mrs. Oscar Sussman, 42 Clover Lane; and Thursday, February 12, 1:15 p.m., Mrs. M. A. Meyers, 47 Balsam Lane.

'DIMES' FILM SCHEDULED

By Visiting Nurse Association. A film showing the new fields served by the March of Dimes since polio has been controlled will be shown to the Princeton Visiting Nurse Association at the group's annual meeting on Monday, February 16, at the home of Mrs. Richard V. Lindabury, 34 Cleveland Lane. All contributors to the United Community Fund or to the V.N.A. capital fund are invited to attend.

The film illustrates work by the National Foundation in the fields of arthritis, birth defects and disorders of the central nervous system. George Berish of the Dale Carnegie Club of Trenton will supervise the showing. The Princeton V.N.A. works with the National Foundation in the rehabilitation of polio victims.

WHAT'S TAUGHT AND HOW?

At Littlebrook. The first in a series of workshops on "The Basic Curriculum at Littlebrook" will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the school.

The parent-study workshops, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association, will be introduced by Charles LeMontagne, principal of the school. Following his introduction, the meeting will divide into three specific discussion groups, each one led by a moderator.

Language arts discussion will be led by Lawrence Holland.

NOT MUSIC TO THEIR EARS: Chester A. Raymond (left), a builder of pipe organs, and C. Wilson Barry, an organ voicer (the person who achieves the type of tones desired), agree on the quality of organ music—and also on the fact that television today is not completely on-key. For their observations, and those of other Princetonians, see Question of the Week below. (Photo by Alan Richards)

Question of the Week

Question: Do you think television is getting better or worse?

Location: Downtown Princeton.

Chester A. Raymond, 37 Palmer Square West, pipe organ builder: Well, to tell you the truth, I don't spend too much time watching TV — there's too much on it that doesn't interest me. I enjoy Ed Sullivan's show and the Chevrolet program with Dinah Shore, and I think television's coverage of sports events is improving all the time. In other words, some high points are excellent, but, with so much time to fill, there are bound to be too many low points.

Mrs. Emily Slung, 79 Kendall Road, Kendall Park, professional artist: I like television in general, but I'm very emphatic in my belief that children's shows are getting worse, not better. Most of them are ridiculous. Youngsters should be able to identify themselves with normal youngsters. TV is full of too many people they can't be. There should be more instructive-type programs.

Charles F. J. McHugh, 19 Morgan Avenue, Princeton University professor: It's noisy — it's gotten to a point where blunders thunders are too routine. Repetition is supposed to build strength, but, in the case of TV, repetition is for the birds. It's the same stuff we saw in the movies as sixth graders. I must admit it's nice to watch at night
— I don't have to watch it!

Miss Linda Salikin, Washington Road, Penna Neck, sophomore at Princeton High School: Some of the stuff is getting better, yes; but a great deal of it seems to be going to the dogs. For one thing, the movies on TV aren't up-to-date enough. For another thing, those awful commercials are driving me out of my mind!

PRINCETON'S FIRST AND FINEST DRY CLEANER

C. Wilson Barry, North Post Road, Princeton Junction, pipe organ voicer: Frankly, I never see television very much. I don't even own a set. I'm not interested enough in it to buy one.
From what I hear, it is getting better. However, I still don't think it's good enough to invest in it.

Mrs. James G. Affleck, 466 Riverside Drive, housewife: My husband and I don't even watch TV any more — and, in fact, the children don't either. Oh, occasionally, there are a few important programs we make a point of seeing, but they are few and far between. When the "season" began last fall, there was such a miserable choice of shows, we all took up reading — and it looks as though we will continue reading for quite awhile!

Mrs. S. Glenn Ellis, Alexander Road, housewife: Quite frankly, we don't watch enough to make a comment one way or the other.
There are some very good programs on Sunday afternoons which we do see once in awhile, though. On the other hand, our dog likes "I Aslie," and I find the TV set invaluable when I'm asked to babysit for a neighbor!

Mrs. Norman H. Jackson, 638
Lake Drive, housewife: I enjoy what I watch on TV — and I watch a good deal. The morning quiz programs are a lot of fun, and my husband is partial to Westerns in the evening. Our two-year-old loves "Captain Kangaroo" and the other children's programs. So, all in all, we're quite happy with the "small screen," and I think the quality of the programs has remained about the same.

Mrs. Wladislaw S. Niles, 35 Jefferson Road, housewife: Well, I'm not much of a television addict to begin with, but I do make a point of watching certain programs such as Ed Murrow's and The Firestone Hour. I see an occasional play or comedy, but I don't care for the detective stories. As to whether television programming is better or worse than it used to be, I still feel I could give TV up forever and not miss it! The great problem, I think, is what's on television for children when they are at an impressionable age. It's so very hard to control what they watch.
In fact, I know one family who got rid of their set for that reason, and their children are much better off now playing games or reading than watching TV.

SERVICE MEASURED IN MILLIONS

This Penn Mutual underwriter has won membership in the Penn Mutual "Million Club." He is honored in the February 7 issue of The SATURDAY EVENING POST.

Through his painstaking service and sincere interest in the well-being of others, this Penn Mutual underwriter has made a magnificent record. During the past year, he put into effect more than a million dollars worth of careful insurance plans...for people like yourself, for families like yours and for far-sighted business leaders seeking protection for their firms and employees.

A careful insurance plan is truly a Declaration of Independence for you. It brings you security, and translates your hopes into dependable reality. But most people find life insurance puzzling. There are so many kinds of policies, each with its own special uses. It is difficult to be sure you are choosing the right ones for your own particular needs.

You will be sure, when you sign your Declaration of Independence with an experienced, skillful Penn Mutual underwriter like the one shown here. Call today—you will always be glad you did.

To the Editor of TOWN TOPICS:
I am releasing herewith a copy of a letter to Mayme Mead. Because of the importance to the community of having these citizen boards functioning properly, I feel that my censure of the Mayor is in order.
"Mr. Arthur Morgan's open letter to you published in two of our three local papers (Town Topics, Feb. 1-7) relative to your failure to make appointments to vacancies on the Boards of Health, Planning and Zoning is unduly restrained. I intend to call a spade a spade.
"During the past 35 years Princeton has been served by eight Mayors, four Democrats and four Republicans. I challenge you to cite any other administration whether Republican or Democratic when appointments to these or any other boards have been so flagrantly mishandled as in the past year.

"You can call this letter politically inspired or anything you wish but you cannot deny the following facts:
"1. You have failed to fill 2 vacancies on the Planning Board which have existed for more than 7 months. One of these, as you know, is filled upon recommendation of the Board of Education. That Board recommended Mr. W. L. Denison last spring. He has been attending Board meetings regularly as an interested and helpful spectator but in the embarrassing position of a non-vote-support.
"2. You have failed to fill two vacancies on the Board of Health.

"3. You have failed to fill one vacancy on the Zoning Board and in the case of the one you did fill by the appointment of Mr. Farr you failed to consult him or ask him whether he would be willing to serve on this Board. You simply proposed his name on New Year's Day with no advance warning to him.

"4. You have failed to notify anyone of the 5 members of these Boards whom you did not wish to resignant that you were not going to continue them and you even failed to so much as write any one of them a thank you note for their many years of unselfish non-partisan service to their community.

"You have failed—period. Most people wouldn't even run a railroad that way."

CHARLES R. EDMAN, JR.
20 Boulevard Street

Editor's Note: In a supplementary memo to Town Topics, former Mayor Edman commended "It would seem very shortsighted not to have re-appointed such citizens as the following, all of whom were dismissed while still willing to serve the community: Mrs. Walter Beers, Dr. C. M. Franklin, Kenneth Kessler, Arthur P. Morgan, Prof. A. K. Papert, Dr. D. A. Fleckering, William Walker, John P. Woodridge."

AFS SEEKS HOMES

For Foreign Students, The American Field Service is currently seeking homes in Princeton for foreign students who will be here next year. Those interested in playing host are invited to notify the Princeton committee chairman, Mrs. George Fremont, Western Way, WA 4-6088.

Homes for next year must be selected before students can be assigned to Princeton. Since the foreign students will be entering the senior class of Princeton High School or Miss Fine's School, the committee prefers to place them in homes with high school seniors or seniors. Care is taken to match the interests of the foreign student with those of the host family.

Families entertaining AFS students this year are: Dr. Louis Stirling Brackett, 101 Red Hill Road, hosts to Francoise Malgou of France; Mr. and Mrs. William Schilde, 133 Library Place, hosts to Guiz Sarant of Turkey; and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tomlinson, Great Road, hosts to Kunitaegu Ido of Japan.

BUSINESS In Princeton

"NASS" CHANGES NAME

From Tavern to Inn, The Nassau Tavern, which has, in its various locations, been a Princeton landmark for 200 years, will be known from now on by its original name, "The Nassau Inn," Fred M. Blaicher, president of Princeton Municipal Improvement, Inc., owners of the Inn, said that the change has been under consideration for some time.

"During the past 20 years, the connotation of the word 'tavern' has changed," Mr. Blaicher pointed out. "It no longer properly describes the extensive services and facilities offered by the hotel." F.M.I. spokesmen said that the word "tavern" has frequently proved misleading to out-of-town organizations which were looking for meeting accommodations.

The original Nassau Inn was built as a private home in 1757 and was converted to a "public house" about ten years later. It was the overnight stop on the stage journey from New York to Philadelphia and at times as many as 30 stages arrived or departed in a single day.

The old Inn, which stood where Strain's is now, was razed in 1939 when Palmer Square was built. The new structure was re-opened in 1947 as The Nassau Tavern.

Historians disagree as to the exact date the private home of Judge Leonard became the Nassau Inn, but its activities during pre-revolutionary days were well-known. The Inn was a popular rendezvous for both royalists and rebels long before the two factions came to blows.

Clarence H. Steelman, Sr.

When the new "Nass" was built in 1937, great pains were taken to preserve its traditional charm and colonial atmosphere. In its forthcoming expansion plans, which were announced last fall, the Nassau Inn plans to continue this policy.

THORNE'S TO EXPAND

Branch Store Announced. Plans to open a store in West Windsor Township were announced this week by The Thorne Pharmacy. The completely-equipped branch will be located on Cranbury Road in Princeton Junction, just across the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge in the new building owned by Craft Dry Cleaners.

Expectations are that the pharmacy will open in March, as close to the first of the month as possible. More than 1100 square feet of retail space will feature all types of merchandise offered by Thorne's on Nassau Street, as well as complete prescription services.

A lease was signed Saturday with John Janick, owner of the dry cleaning firm in whose building the branch will be housed. Paul A. Ashton and E. Everett Campbell, who purchased the Nassau Street pharmacy last spring after it had been managed by Edward A. Thorne and then his widow for more than 30 years, confirmed the expansion plans this week.

"Our decision was motivated by faith in the steady growth of West Windsor," Mr. Ashton said. "We feel certain that this area has a bright future and look forward with much pleasure to becoming a part of it."

A drug store three miles away is the nearest "competition" the new enterprise will have. It's name: The Thorne Pharmacy on Nassau Street.

NURSERYMAN SELECTED
Steelman Will Serve. Clarence H. Steelman, Sr., has been named to the State Board of Agriculture for a four-year term beginning July 1. Mr. Steelman operates the C. H. Steelman Fruit Nursery on Fort Mercer Road, a nursery devoted to the production of fruit trees and small fruit plants.

His nursery is the official source of the New Jersey Peach Industry Committee and the New Jersey Apple Institute. He is past president of the New Jersey State Horticultural Society and has also served as director of the Tri-County Cooperative Auction Market Association, Inc., Hightstown, and of the New Brunswick Production Credit Association. His son, Clarence, Jr., who is associated with him in the nursery business, was recently elected president of the State Horticultural Society.

REEDER HONORED

In "Million Club," John M. Reeder, 151 Valley Road, is one of 163 members of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance to be named to the Million Club for providing his clients with more than $1,000,000 of life insurance during 1958. The company has a nation-wide field force of more than 2000 men.

Mr. Reeder, who is a member of the Thomas M. Miner Agency, 143 East State Street, Trenton, was a "500" Club member at the end of his first full year in the life insurance business. He was named Man of the Year in this area in 1955 and 1956 and qualified for the Penn Mutual Million Club in 1956 and 1957, as well as 1958.

MORE SPACE AT W.E.

Research Center Will Expand. Work has begun on an addition to the Western Electric Engineering Research Center on Carter Road. The new structure will provide the Center with 12,500 additional square feet of space. It will be two stories tall, 65 feet deep and 95 feet wide.

Glen R. Simmons, Director of the Center, has announced that John McShain, Inc., of Trenton has been awarded the construction contract. Plans call for colonial design that will complement the existing building. The new wing will be completed in April of this year, according to construction plans.

SPORTS In Princeton

QUINTET TO TRAVEL

Tigers Face Brown and Yale. A pair of road games on courts that have proved troublesome in the past, confront Princeton's title-conscious basketball team this weekend. The Tigers will be in Providence to play Brown Friday at 8 and in New Haven the following night at 8:30 to meet Yale. Both contests will be broadcast over the University radio station, WPRB-FM, 103.5 megacycles.

When the Orange and Black played host to Brown and Yale on successive nights last month, each game came its way by comfortable margins. Princeton topped the Blue, 73-55, and the Rhode Island quintet, 66-44. If the Tigers can maintain their season shooting average of better than 40%, they'll have no difficulty repeating, but as the climactic games with Dartmouth approach, the pressure will increase.

The Indians drew even with Capry Cappon's five in the standings by trimming Brown at Providence last weekend, 71-59. It was the tall New Hampshire quintet's eighth straight—three of them in a row by two points. Meanwhile, Princeton was beating Rutgers handily for the second time, taking the return contest in Dillon Gym Saturday, 75 to 48. The victors hit on 41% of their shots and out-rebounded the losers by the unusually wide margin of 60 to 37.

Captain Carl Belz, grabbing 29 rebounds and holding his 6-5 opponent, Karol Strelecki, to two points, gave the day's stand-out performance. Strelecki came into the game as a sophomore stand-out with a 16-point average, but with Belz laying siege to every shot, managed to sink just one of 11. The Tiger captain closed with 18 before Cappon sent in his reserves with six minutes left.

Actually, the bench saw more action than in any game played during January. With both Joe Burns and Jim Brangan off their normal shooting form, Mike Burton and Drew Hyland came in to make valuable contributions during the afternoon. Burton accounted for 12 points, joining Carl Belz, Herm Belz (12) and Art Klein (11) in double figures.

team lost to Rensselaer Polytech, 6-4, Saturday night at Troy, N. Y. Twenty-one penalties were called as a R.P.I. player was banished for fighting and Captain W. Cheston of the Tigers received a ten-minute misconduct.

Pete Cook of Kingston, center on the Tiger line, was the Tiger's big gun, getting two goals and an assist. John Hill and John McBride engaged the others, McBride and Lance Odum earning assists.

The Princeton sextet had a surprising 3-2 lead at the end of the first period but yielded three second-period goals. It was trailing only 5-4 with seven minutes left and the final margin was the smallest separating the Tigers from victory in any of the 11 games they have lost this season. (For a report on contests this week against Middlebury and Army, see page 21.)

PHS IN RECORD GAME

But On Losing End. This seems to be a season of records for the Princeton High basketball team—the wrong kind of records. Having lost nine of its first 11 outings and four in a row since edging Round Brook back on January 13, the Blue and White club bow on talented Trenton Catholic last Friday — and found itself overwhelmed by the largest total of points ever scored in interscholastic competition in Mercer County.

Netting points virtually at will, the Rev. Clarence O'Shea's visiting Wave collected 35 in the opening quarter, 28 in the second, 32 in the third and 24 in the finale. The visitors led 35-15 after eight minutes, 63-28 by halftime, 95-32 at the three-quarter mark and 119-47 when the last whistle blew. In the course of the debacle, six Catholic players reached double figures and all 11 managed at least four.

Coach Tony Borzak, realizing the Wave's great height edge and overall superiority, decided to try something different in an effort to keep the score close. He positioned what might be called a "honesome forward," a usually Doug Hayes, under the opponents' basket — and tried to stop the Catholic attack with a four-man zone defense. The strategy failed, the visitors moved through the Little Tigers at will, and Hayes got few opportunities to score via the long pass, as the tall Wave dominated both backboards.

PHS was further hampered by the absence of Tony Boccanfuso, still sidelined with a foot infection. The Little Tigers' sole consistent point-maker, Boccanfuso might have been able to close the gap a bit and, in the process, hold Catholic's output under 100. As it was, sophomore Jim Barbour, with a dozen markers, was the only PHS performer in doubles.

This Wednesday (too late for a report here), Princeton faced Eordentown Military Institute, with the status of Boccanfuso and several other Little Tigers in doubt. Next Tuesday, at 8 p.m., Coach Tony Borzak's ill-fated crew will travel to Ewing for a return match with the Blue Devils, who won a 55-50 overtime thriller here a few weeks ago.

Coach George Povillias' PHS jayvees, defeated 72-49 by Catholic's junior varsity, will meet Ewing's juniors in a 7 o'clock preliminary next Tuesday. Against the Wave, Bill Cranston's 14 points and Jack Hawkins' 10 were high for the Little Little Tigers.

HUN EVES COMEBACK

During Final Month. Beaten six times in its first eight games of the 1958-59 campaign, Hun School's basketball team will try to get even with the world by the end of its regular slate February 21. The road will not be an easy — Continued on Page 20

BOB CLOTWORTHY

Princeton Swimming Coach

From Los Angeles, California, last week came word of the election to the Helms Hall of Fame of Princeton's new swimming coach, Robert L. Clotworthy. Selected for his top-flight record as a diver, Olympic champion, Bob Clotworthy is one of the youngest in his sport to be so honored and is only the 25th to be chosen out of a nation that has consistently produced many of the world's finest athletes in this specialized field.

Clotworthy was barely in his teens when he won his first important title, earning the Union County (N.J.) championship in 1944 and becoming State High School champion a few years later. Similar success at the eastern interscholastic level and then at Ohio State in Big Ten competition (off both the one-meter and three-meter boards) followed.

At Helsinki, Finland, Clotworthy placed third in Olymp-pic three-meter competition; four years later (1954), he won the gold medal in Melbourne, Australia, to cap a fine amateur career that ended when he entered the ranks of swimming coaches with appointment as an assistant at Dartmouth.

Although overshadowed by Yale's perennial eastern champion, Princeton swimming teams in other years have consistently ranked among the leaders in this section of the country. Clotworthy (who joins Cappy Cappon and the late Charlie Caldwell as one of three Princeton coaches honored by election in the Helms Hall of Fame) was brought here to direct the climb back to the top.

It's a long road—last year's team won only three at a dozen meets—but an improved variety and a better-than-average freshman outfit that has compiled a 4-1 mark and broken a University record lend realistic hope for the future. So do the talent and enthusiasm that Bob Clotworthy has brought to Princeton.

RIFLE CLUB SECOND

Woodward is High Scorer. James Woodward shot a 355-point target to pace the Princeton Junior Rifle Club to a second place showing at the Reserve Armory in Trenton Friday. Post No. 83, Trenton, was the victor, repeating their triumph earlier in the month in the Delaware Valley Junior Rifle League match at Yardley, Pa. Princeton finished third in the earlier match.

In last Friday's shooting, Post No. 83 compiled 777 points, Princeton and 749 and St. Mary's Boy Scout Troop No. 73, Trenton, posted 733. Other high scorers for Princeton were Stan Dohm, 190; Fred Sayen, 181; Robin Alexander, 180; Ralph Gutbrodt, 178, and Frank Coccioiello, 177. The club is sponsored by the Patriotism's Benevolent Association. —Continued on Page 21 one for the Red and Black, however, since the "short" club must face no less than three quintets which already have posted triumphs over the Johnny Huns this season.

A team which hasn't met Hun to date, Pingry School, will test the Princeton prep five at 2:30 this Friday afternoon in the Seminary gym, the first home contest since the mid-year examination break. Meanwhile, Coach George Seleck's team was slated to play Solebury in Pennsylvania this Wednesday, too late for inclusion of a final score in the current issue of Town Topics. In December, Solebury defeated Hun, 53-12, here.

BOWLING NOTES

Industrial Race Over. After waging a nip-and-tuck battle with Nassau Del and Gable Tavern for most of the season's first half, Maier & Baldwin this past week claimed the Industrial League midway crown at Princeton Recreation Center. The victorious team finished with 74 wins, with the rest of the loop posting these final totals: Nassau Del, 71; Gable Tavern, 66; the Reformers, Para Lab Supplies and Cresentis, 60 apiece; Nassu Service, 57, and Wengry Construction, 56.

Doug DeCicco's 626 series (205-223-198) highlighted individual play among the Industrialists, and also was the top series registered at PRC during the event. Bill Battle's 615 series (212-177-276) was only one of several outstanding performances in the Princeton "B" League, which saw Pete Franks, Buddy Cavanaugh and Gene Seims record 236, 234 and 232 games, respectively. Sarah Huneycutt earned accolades for her 226 game in the Princeton Women's Bowling League.

Other noteworthy scores: Joe Pflister, 200-211; John Koboski and John Frazee, 210 each; Hal Frazee, 207, and George Wengry, 202-201, in the Industrial circuit; Ralph Frone, 221; Frank Delesco and Fred Lehnert, 209 each, and George Paris, 200, in the "B" loop; Walt Coon, 207; Jack Stout, 205; Vince Sassman, 202; Jim Dabrowski, 201, and George Luck, 200, in the Tri-County Firemen's League; Bill Dumble, 201, in the Princeton "A" League; Peg Brown, 189-193; Marilyn Lowe, 177; Marge Bloom, 175, and Joan Almsworth, 171, in the Women's Industrial League; and Betty Kleiber, 187; Wanda Earl, 161; Elizabeth Brown, 179; Helen Cherry, 177; Myra Mernagh and Janice V. Corneese, 176 each; Sis Kleiforth, 174; Pat Walker and Betty Snyder, 172 each, and Marge Daniels and Dot Regany, 170 each, in the FWBL.

Team-wise, with second-half races just getting underway, battles in all of the PRC league remained tight. The National Guard (38 wins) stayed ahead of Maul Electric and Jefferson Plumbing (34 apiece) and Tiger Bus in the "B" loop; Decker's and Citifit's (25 apiece) were tied ahead of Cranbury Inn (24) in the Women's Industrial circuit; the Tin Pushers (24) held a slim lead over Tiger Bus and Betty Wright Shop (22 apiece) in the FWBL; Princeton Engine No. 1 (16) kept an advantage over Princeton Junction (14) in the Tri-County Firemen's League; and Keller Plumbing and Farr Hardware (six apiece) started off in a deadlock in the "A" loop.

BRITISH TEAM DUE

To Compete in Squash Here. An eight-member women's squash team from Great Britain will compete in the New Jersey State Squash Racquets Championships for three days beginning next Thursday. This will mark the second time that a British squad has appeared here. The British women are on a six-week tour of the United States and will close their trip by competing for the International Wolfe-Noel Cup.

Hosts for the British players are Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Clar, 132 Elm Road; Mr. and Mrs. James L. Knipe, 61 Lovers Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Kuser, Rosedale Road; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Roberts, 32 Hodge Road. The committee for the state championships includes Mrs. San-

OBSERVE THESE TWO DATES!

On February 11, Science Youth Day will be celebrated to mark the 112th birthday of Thomas A. Edison.

National Electrical Week will be celebrated from February 8-14, 1959.

STUDENTS!

Think of the Future... your future!

Give a thoughtful view to the days and weeks and years that lie ahead of you in school.

The electrical age has arrived... it's with us now... and the use of electricity is growing in tremendous proportions.

What does this mean to you? It gives you the opportunity to chart your future along the lines of education which will train you for work in the electrical industry. You can do this by studying science... mathematics... trigonometry... physics... all the courses which train the graduate engineer.

America must take the lead in science if we are to continue to be strong. During National Electrical Week, talk to your parents, friends and teachers about the value of training yourself through education for the engineering professions.

News Of The CHURCHES

PLANNING FOR CHRISTMAS

Planning for What? Realizing that Christmas is only a few months away, the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity Church has begun to make plans for a Christmas Fair.

It will be held December 5, 1959 and the proceeds will go toward the new All Saints' Chapel. Mrs. Robert J. Shaw will serve as chairman, and a committee of 14 women will be in charge.

BULLETIN NOTES

A Dignified, Princeton Chapter of Hadassah announces the formation of a study group in conversational Hebrew based on recordings. Mrs. Harold Starn will conduct the course at her home, 268 Mt. Lucas Road, Thursdays from 10:15 to 11:30 a.m. Those who are interested may secure further information from Mrs. Starn at WA 1224.

A Brazilian dinner will be given by the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church next Monday at 4:45 p.m. in the Social Hall. The dinner will commemorate the hundredth anniversary of Presbyterian work in Brazil. The Rev. M. Richard Shaul of the Seminary, Campinas, Brazil, will speak.

Mrs. Roger Sessions, head of readers' services at the Princeton Public Library, will speak to the Women's Division of the Jewish Center next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Center. She will review the outstanding books of 1958.

Who Are Baptists?

A new series of inter-church exchange meetings will feature discussions by Princeton young people of the reasons they attend the churches of their choice.

The first of these meetings, held Monday, was concerned with "The Baptists and What They Believe." At the meeting, held at Calvary Baptist church, Donald B. Reynolds, Jr., of Princeton 2-Baptist Church, Penns Neck, presided. The Rev. Kenneth S. Dannenbauer, pastor of Calvary Baptist, gave a brief talk on the history, beliefs and practices of the Baptist church. An open discussion followed and church members and people from the First Baptist church provided special music. The Baptist churches participating in the meeting were Calvary, First and Princeton Baptist churches. The Princeton Unitarian Church will be acting as sponsor of the series.

Sports In Princeton

TURF REVERSED
Hockey Team Wins 2-1 In a sharp form reversal that was greatly to its credit after absorbing 11 defeats, Princeton's hockey team edged Middlebury, 4-3, Monday and then defeated Army decisively, 4 to 1. The Tigers' triumph hinged on a combination of achievements that had eluded them most of the season: ability to play topflight hockey in the third period and to turn in a solid defensive performance.

In another rough contest at Middlebury (see page 19 for details on the R.P.I. set-6), 19 penalties were called as the Tigers moved out to leads of 3-0 and 4-1 and then staved off the home team's hockey rally. Tony Pell and Hugh Scott gave Princeton a pair of second-period goals, with high-scoring Johnny McBride making it 3-0 at 4:30 of the hectic final session.

After Middlebury broke into the scoring column at 11:15, Pete Cook got the goal that proved decisive with seven minutes left. The losers pushed two more into the Tiger cage but could not draw rally in the final round broke up a 1-1 tie and brought victory over a better-than-average goalie. Scott, McBride, Captain Mo Cheston and McBride again scored in that order. Tonight's play by goalie Barry Van Gerbig marked both victories and the Tigers face Cornell at Ithaca Saturday and Brown here next Wednesday night at 8 with belief that they can now make trouble for any team in the Ivy circuit.

UNION HOME TO CELEBRATE
Dinner Will Mark Centennial
The Union Industrial Home in Trenton, which houses about 30 children from broken and disturbed homes, will celebrate its 100th anniversary Tuesday at 7:30 with a dinner at the Hotel Staty-Trent. A series of tableaux illustrating the history of the home and its current program will be given.

Area residents participating in the event are A. Monroe Wad, producer and director of the tableaux; Frank Levin, in charge of tape recordings; Harvey Enory, toastmaster; Mrs. Edward Katzenbach and Mrs. Myron G. Darby of Lawrenceville, co-chairmen of the centennial celebration; Mrs. Leonard Johnson, tableaux chairman, and Mrs. Sydney G. Stevens, arrangements chairman.

GARDEN CLUB WILL MEET
Horticultural Program Set
The Dogwood Garden Club will hold its next meeting on Thursday, February 12, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Durjoy, 321 State Road.

Mrs. Harry A. Hey and Mrs. George Bishop will be co-hostesses. The program for the afternoon will be club participation in horticulture.

ST. VALENTINE'S DANCE
Sportsman's Club Party. The Princeton Italian-American Sportsman's Club will hold a St. Valentine's Dance next Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Club's new quarters on Turbine Road.

Sam Nini and Jack Petrone are co-chairmen of the affair and Jerry Bryan and his 11-piece orchestra will provide music. Tickets for members and guests are $4.50 each.

If you think early Georgian or late Cape Cod is just the berries, forget we came in. But if you and your kid enjoy plenty of room and light, believe a house should be designed to live in—not merely to exist in, like the idea of getting maximum space per buck, then let's talk. We'd like to explain and show you our concept of a new type of light-hearted living that we deeply believe in—the Techbuilt House.

A CONTEMPORARY BARGAIN
open to offers

Here we have a real bargain thanks to a realistic builder who will accept a sensible price for a quick sale. His new contemporary on 1 1/4 acres in the northwest Township has a living room with cathedral ceiling and brick fireplace, dining room, excellent kitchen with electric oven, playground, pool room, laundry and mud room on the first floor. On the second are four bedrooms, two baths. If your tastes run to the conventional, this is not your house; but if you like modern, you can't go wrong here on the value of the land alone.
